London, 18th Dec 1891

My dear Mr. [illegible]

I have just received your letter of the 17th and am glad to hear that you are interested in the subject of the proposed new railway line between London and the coast and that you are considering the possibility of a direct route from the city to the seaside.

I am sure that the project will be of great benefit to the country and that it will be successful.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,

Yours faithfully,
